“ Gloria, my adopted grandmother..You were such an inspiring and beautiful woman inside and out. You allowed me to be a part of your family for the past 10 years, and always showed me more love than I could every repay you for. I'll never forget the times we've had, whether it be sitting on your couch smoking cigarettes together, or taking a two day trip to Atlantic City. I hope you are up in heaven resting now, but also dancing with your husband and your "sexy legs"! Thank you for all that you did for me. The world was blessed to have you for as long as it did. No one could compare to "mama", and you will never be forgotten. I love you, may you Rest In Peace
