“ My condolences to the family. Greg was one of the warmest and funniest people I've ever known. We shared a respondent list back in the mid 90s, and he always kept me in stitches. I just saw him about 10 days ago, still in great spirits. We've lost a good one with his passing.

“ Greg was my best friend, my rock, and the source of many laughs. I had the privilege of spending almost every day with him. We had long talks and evening TV night. Greg was an awesome father; Danielle and Sean were everything to him. I have never known a better father. You will always be in my heart. Mia and I will truly miss you. See you when I get to your world. Love you

“ My sincerest condolences to Greg's family and friends. How lucky we all are to have had the pleasure of knowing Greg. I worked with Greg at AIG for a couple of years. It was my first job out of law school and he was the first attorney in the office to invite me to join the attorneys for lunch. He took me under his wing and I have the fondest memories of Greg and the lunch gang. It's a small miracle that none of us ever choked on our food because Greg always had us laughing. It was always the favorite part of my day. He had an amazing sense of humor and his laugh was contagious. Greg was a generous friend and a good man. He always spoke fondly of his children, niece and nephews. He is dearly missed.

Greg, thank you for every laugh and every kindness.

He was a great person and will be missed by all who knew him. His love and pride for his children was apparent whenever he spoke of them. I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ Gregy Bear, so many great memories! Of course I couldn't write them down, I'd be arrested. LOL Your big smile and great laugh will be with me forever. You left us way too soon, but it was a joy and an honor to be your friend. I know you're raising hell in haven as I speak, the place is never going to be the same. Rest in Peace my crazy friend. I will take care of your best bud for you until we all meet up again. My deepest sympathy to your family.

“ I am so so sorry to hear of Greg’s passing . He was probably my favorite ever workers compensation ‘adversary ‘ even though I hadn’t had a case with him in years . Greg’s wonderful sense of humor and laugh was contagious and I was fortunate to have known him.. he will be sorely missed since he always added fun to any court room he entered! Not knowing that the last time I saw him would be the last time , I gave him a hug when I saw him in court a month ago. And I’m glad I did . My condolences go out to his family and all who knew him . Rest In Peace dear friend .

“ I regret that I haven’t had a case with Greg in a while. He had such a good heart and was always a pleasure to work with. He made everyone laugh with his quick smile and sparkling eyes. His family should know that he will be sorely missed by everyone he dealt with at the entire Division of Workers’ Compensation .

“ "Uncle "greg you were the biggest sweetheart. You will be missed but have memories of hanging out with you at parties, aruba and cabo
May you rest in peace

“ Thank you to Greg's family for setting this up. Like so many other attorneys, I was lucky enough to have Greg as an 'adversary' on my Worker's Compensation claims. I guess it must sound weird, but I was always very excited when Greg filed paperwork on behalf of the Respondent, because I knew that we would always be able to talk, have a few laughs, and be able to get things done. Greg always did the right thing (without giving away the store!). He was always someone that I could go to with a question, and I am going to miss him very, very much.

“ I saw this photo board at Greg's wake today. Was hoping they would be posted, and shared, for everyone to see. I met him as a student at Cedar Ridge and would continue to run into him over the next forty years. Even as a college student at Seton Hall I could turn to Greg for help with my English assignments.

He was a man filled with compassion, empathy, a big heart, and a laugh bigger than himself. I'm very sorry for your loss but know you are blessed with so many great memories. God Bless.

“ I only knew Greg through Workers' Comp. I may have spent a total of an hour or two talking to him over the past five years. But oh what a wonderful time it was. Funny, smart and vibrant. To his daughter and son, Greg was a great guy and a true down-to-earth gentlemen. But you knew that. Carry him in your hearts every minute of the day.

“ My deepest condolences to the Gleason family. I was deeply saddened to hear of the passing of the beautiful, blue eyed, sharp dressed man I was once a secretary to. GG always brought light and laughter to the office. I'll never forget the day he put Ms. D's long fur coat and wig on and ran around the office. Everyone laughed hysterically. He often spoke of how proud he was of his children. He was a wonderful person who will be missed by all. Love, Mo
