“ My uncle David, my sister Mary, and I are all very sad to hear of the passing away of our cousin Irene and offer our condolences to the Morans. Dave and his four late siblings (Frances, Howard, Joanne, and Art, who was Mary's father and my father) knew Helen, Mary, and Irene well growing up in Greenpoint and were very fond of them. I met Irene and Mary only one time, I am sorry to say; my father, Dave, Mary, and I met them for lunch in Queens many years ago. They were lovely ladies and I wish I had gotten to know them better.

“ I was saddened to hear of my cousin Irene's passing, She and I were very close through the years., but we lost touch in the past few years.and that was a loss.. Irene and Mary were welcome company to my home, they always made it such a good time.

I am glad that all my memories are good memories.
