

Peter Glancy

November 13, 1970 - May 24, 2020

Peter Glancy, 49 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Sunday, May 24, 2020, at Raritan Bay Medical Center in Old Bridge.

Born Friday, November 13, 1970, on Staten Island, NY, he was the son of Pamela Glancy and the late James Glancy.

Peter was raised on Staten Island. He was a graduate of Port Richmond High School. Peter was a loving family man. He enjoyed being around all of his family especially his daughter Alyssa. Peter moved to Old Bridge almost 10 years ago. Peter worked for Conforti Specialized Inc. as a heavy equipment transporter. In his spare time he was always rooting for his favorite team, the NY Yankees, and also spending time playing PlayStation. His family was everything, he enjoyed the annual family vacations, and cooking meals for everyone to enjoy. He had an infectious smile and was always fun to be around. He will be greatly missed by all those that loved him.

Peter was predeceased by his father, James Glancy, and by his brother, J.C. Glancy.

Peter is survived by his beloved daughter, Alyssa Glancy, by his loving mother, Pamela Glancy, by his caring sisters, Kelli Gregoli, and Lori Cannistraci, and by many loving nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers donations are being accepted to the following gofundme account in support of his daughter Alyssa.

“ I had worked with peter at Cafe Patanero he was an amazing man a teddy bear and a big brother type to me. We had very nice conversations I admired how honored and proud he was of his daughter Alyssa peter looked out for me and always there to lend a helping hand I could always talk to him about anything and he had a beaming smile that would light up a room. He will be missed My thoughts and prayers go out to his daughter and family. I am so sorry for your loss. He is an angel up in heaven. Sincerely, Lori Ann Dimino
