“ My deepest sympathies to the Mody family. I had the genuine pleasure of being Viral's supervisor for over two years. Our work together was highly collaborative, but we also had plenty of laughs over time. He was one of the best humans I've ever met. He was always so positive and looked for the inherent strengths in everyone with whom he interacted. He frequently put others' needs before his own and always wanted to do the best possible job in serving our consumers. I had nothing but the highest respect, admiration, and regard for him as a professional and as a person. He will be sorely missed; I am a better person for having known him.
