“ Aunt Adele, We all love you and will miss you very much, but I take comfort in knowing you are in a better place, visiting with your sister and family, and continuing to make wonderful art. Our paths will cross again one day I know - and I look forward to that time. Love, Joy Michele, Brett, Jerry & Faith

“ I will miss you very much. I remember you always in the happy times that we shared as a family... birthdays, graduations and so many other happy occasions. Every occasion there were always signs of a little touch of you and the artist within. Your delicious foods you would make or the decorated desserts ths I still salivate when thinking of them)..... there were always signs of that artist. Your pictures were so beautiful and I was honored to have one in our home. (I remember once when you wanted me to be happy and optimistic at a certain time in my life and you made me a picture of a bunny smiling. You said it was to make me happy whenever I look at it... It still hangs on my fridge and I still smile when I see it.)I was honored one day to go to your condo and see the work of art you made, not just in your paintings, but in the décor of your home. Every inch had a beautiful touch. My dad always looked forward to getting you the gift certificate to your beauty salon and I will always remember the joy you got when I would come and visit you while you were in the nursing home and bring you a single jelly donut from Wegmans. That sums you up... you were a very classy woman with amazing talents and also the one that with just a simple loving gesture would put a smile on your face. I also want to thank you for making the kitten pictures for my Aunt Sheila because you knew how much Chloe, her cat, meant. The last time I was there I was able to hang it on her walls for her. It was the last painting she had before she passed away and it brought her so much joy to look at it. You brought so much joy and beauty into the lives you touched. Thank you for letting me be a part of your life and love. Rest in peace. A little note for Janice, who with your devotion, love and dedication you made sure your mom's last stage in her life had dignity... and the last picture I have in my head is of you kissing her on the head with tears in your eyes and saying, "Mommy, Mommy" to let her know you were there and she was not alone. Rest in peace Adele, and know you will be missed. Love Cheryllove from Yaakov, Rena and Sara Ruby
