“ Alex had that cool van with the swivel chairs in the back and the round table with the cup holders. Awesome. He had those amazing tropical fish and a couple cats when they lived over on Elizabeth Ave by Bananas. And the nice stereo. We worked together over in Irvington for a while and the boss used to drive this big boat of a car. Alex would twist the hood ornament on his car so it was facing the wrong way, just to annoy him. And it did. He drove the boss crazy but he could never catch him doing it. Hilarious. He was gutsy like that and always fun. Alex was a good friend and he will be missed.

“ I had a great childhood and you were a big part of it.

With sticks and acorns; branches and strings.

We became gladiators, knights and archers.

We danced around fires, swam in lakes and learned about life.

We were young, free and happy

But best of all we were friends
