

Ana Maria Lugo

April 26, 1920 - March 28, 2018

Ana Maria Lugo, 97 of New York, New York died on March 28, 2018 at her home.

Born April 26, 1920 in Lajas, Puerto Rico, Ana was the daughter of the late Juana Cruz and Joaquin Rodriguez.

Residing in the Kips Bay section of Manhattan for over 7 decades, Ana was a seamstress, babysitter and homemaker over the years. She worked in the fashion district in Manhattan and also cared for many children like her own. Ana enjoyed traveling the world, she and her husband, Anibal, of more than 73 years loved to travel together. They took multiple trips throughout Europe, across North America, Canada and even Morocco. Later in life they enjoyed taking Amtrak trips across the United States. Ana loved hosting family gatherings and cooking (she was an excellent cook) for her family. She will be missed by all of those who were blessed to have had her in their lives.

Ana is predeceased by her husband Anibal and daughter Lillian Ramirez and survived by her loving children, Joe Martinez and Ana Serrano-Trent, by her cherished grandchildren (and spouses) Darrin Serrano, Derek Serrano (Dawn), Joey Martinez, and Nicole Gardere (Regi) by her adoring great grandchildren, Victor, Danielle, Nicolas, Haley, Mia, and Mariela, and by her nieces Noemi, Sylvia, Elizabeth and Irma. She will be missed by her home health aides who lovingly cared for her as if she were their own mother:

Nancy, Winnie, Myra, Zoriada, and Merci.

The family will receive friends from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM on Thursday, April 5th, at Michael Hegarty & John Vincent Scalia Home For Funerals and Cremation Service, 3377 US Highway 9, Old Bridge, New Jersey.
Entombment to follow at the Princeton Memorial Park, Robbinsville, NJ.
