November 17, 1940 - October 2, 2020

Angelo Balzano, 79 of Parlin, New Jersey went home to the Lord on Friday, October 2, 2020, he was surrounded by the love of his family.

Angelo was a member of the Bethel Evangelical Free Church on Staten Island, where he served as a trustee for many years. He was an avid fan of the Brooklyn Dodgers and continued to root for the team when they moved to Los Angeles. Angelo enjoyed, going crabbing by the shore, wood working, and watching old movies. He loved to be a help to anyone in need, and around Christmas dressing up as Santa Claus for the kids. He will be deeply missed by all those that were Blessed to have him in their lives

“ My sincere condolences to the Balzano family, may you rest in peace for you were an exceptional human being, but my favorite memories of us were going to many DODGER Baseball games and enjoying everyone of them. We knew our baseball and would have wonderful conversations about our favorite team. I would love the stories you told me about the Brooklyn Dodgers, and how you tried out for team back in the day, you only had to write a letter and ask permission. How cool was that? I and many others can only dream of doing that. I will miss our times together, the games, eating out and barbecues. PLAYING softball in the church league, for Bethel. Well now you can watch from HEAVEN as we try once again to get that world series trophy we have been waiting for since 1988. Now you are the 10th Dodger in the sky and I will miss you the same as I miss my big brother Lew who will also be watching from Heaven. GO DODGERS! Love you Angelo, John Cimino

“ We remember going with my dear brother-in-law Angelo and my sister Miriam to the Manor in West Orange N.J.. He loved his steak rare an the shrimps. It was where Donna and Todd got married; so it became our favorite place to celebrate any occasion.
