“ Dad I miss you so much! I know you are looking down on me and smiling. I am doing everything that I promised you I would do. I won't let you down daddy. I never have and I never will. It hurts so much not to see you everyday and have our talks. I will cherish every single moment I got to spend with you. You know how very much I love you because I told you every single day. Until we meet again daddy, keep watching over us and keep looking after mommy. I love you!!

“ Tony, I miss you so much that it hurts. I know you are with us. My black butterfly came to the window and flew around in a circle. I had a white butterfly follow me to the car today. I know you and Anthony are together and are watching over all of us. You were the love of my life and always will be. Sleep peacefully in heaven. Until we meet again.

“ Daddy, it's been a week since you been gone, I miss you so much I didn't realize how hard this would be for me. I try to think of all the special times we shared, like when I was little and you and uncle Johnny would take me to the race track or when we went to Vegas and you prayed to the Buddha for money but most of all what I cherish the most is dancing with you at my 25th wedding anniversary you were so proud and looked so handsome I will hold that in my heart forever?not a day will go by that I don't think of you. Even though I know physically you are not suffering any more, the pain I feel is so unbearable Till we meet again Fly high my angel Your baby girl ?????
