

Anthony Viento

November 3, 1945 - May 10, 2025

Anthony Viento, a devoted husband, loving father, and adoring grandfather, passed away on Saturday, May 10, 2025, in Old Bridge, New Jersey.

Born on Saturday, November 3, 1945, in the Bronx, New York, to parents Ciro and Concetta Viento, Anthony was a bright light in the lives of those who knew him, and his memory will forever be cherished.

Anthony was raised in the Bronx, alongside his two brothers. He graduated from the Fashion Institute of Technology, where he honed his creative skills and developed a passion for the garment industry. He worked as a pattern maker for many years in the bustling garment district of New York City, where his talent and dedication earned him the respect of his colleagues and clients alike.

He met the love of his life, Lucille, 42 years ago, and they embarked on a beautiful journey together. Their love flourished as they moved to Queens to start a family. After welcoming their first child, they relocated to Edison, NJ, where they raised their two wonderful children, Nicholas and Loretta.

Beyond his professional life, Anthony was a man of many passions. He loved to laugh and enjoyed watching a good sitcom or comedy show. His laughter was infectious, bringing joy to those around him. A lifelong fan of the New York Yankees and the New York Giants, he relished the excitement of game days, often sharing those moments with family and friends over a good glass of wine.

Above all, he was a dedicated husband, loving father, and caring sibling. However, his greatest joy in life came from being a grandfather. He absolutely adored his four grandchildren. Anthony cherished every moment spent with them, filling their lives with love, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

Anthony is predeceased by his brothers Ciro and Ralph.

Anthony is survived by his beloved wife Lucille, by his loving children Nicholas (wife, Jennifer) and Loretta (fiance, Brian Harvey), by his cherished grandchildren Giulia, Violet, Myles, and Chloe, and his caring in-laws Donna, Irene, Lenore, Dan and Frankie
