So many great stories we could tell. But one of the most memorable these days was when we showed up at Jon Bonjovis door and told his parents we were there to kick his ass. LMFAO He's hiding behind them talking all kinds of shit as his mother is screaming for us to leave before she calls the cops as we stood there laughing at them. Rest in peace my friend and I will catch you again on the back 50.

I will always remember the great times we had back in the day. The parties at your house and at "The Swing" and the summers at Great Adventure and the Jersey shore. And over the past two years reconnecting and leeting at a few NYC pubs and having a couple too many. Rest in Peace my dear friend until we meet again.
