January 3, 1954 - May 22, 2024

Arlene Boka, 70 of Old Bridge, New Jersey passed away on Wednesday, May 22, 2024, at her home.

Born Sunday, January 3, 1954 in Jersey City, New Jersey, Arlene was the daughter of the late George Corbisiero and Florence Lampe.

Arlene was raised in Cranford, New Jersey and was a graduate of Cranford High School. It was in that same small town that Arlene would start a family of her own. She would eventually settle in Old Bridge 18 years ago.

Arlene was a mother and grandmother above all else. She cherished any time she would get to spend with her family. Always being there to help in any way she could. When Arlene did have some down time, she loved reading, there were always books around the house. Arlene also enjoyed spending time going to yard sales and thrifting. Arlene was a loving and caring woman who will be deeply missed by all those that love her.

Arlene was predeceased by her husband, Joseph Boka, and by her brother Dennis Fiore.

Arlene is survived by her loving children, Sheila Gassmann, Carrie Kazmirek and her husband Marek, and Joseph Boka, by her caring brothers Chris Corbisiero and Joseph Corbisiero, and by her cherished grandchildren, Chevelle, Hailee, and Sabrina Gassmann, Samantha and Kevin Kazmirek, and Noah Boka.
