

Barbara Gulizio

September 14, 1942 - May 17, 2022

Barbara Gulizio, 79 of Morganville, New Jersey passed on Tuesday, May 17, 2022, at home surrounded by her loving family.

Born Monday, September 14, 1942 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Stephen and Dorothy Henry. Barbara was affectionately known as 'Nana' to all. St. Patrick's Day was her second birthday and all was green in celebration each year. She enjoyed playing pokeno, cards, bingo, and hosting girls nights and block parties. She was a great cook and was known for making the best meatballs. For every occasion, you could find her shopping at Boscov's, Christmas Tree Shop, or The Dollar Store - making sure that everyone was decked out in holiday themed socks to celebrate. Above all else, she loved spending time with her family and would always respond to our 'I love yous,' with 'I love you more.' Her love was palpable and she will be forever felt in our hearts.

Barbara is predeceased by parents Stephen and Dorothy Henry and by her brother Stephen Henry.

Barbara is survived by her loving children Barbara Gulizio Furman (Ed Furman), James Gulizio (Dawn Gulizio), Marilyn Pantaleo (Michael Pantaleo), Joann Gulizio (Ralph Ibarra), her caring sisters Carol Ann Rossetti, and Carolyn Montesano, her adored grandchildren Cassi Brodeur,

“ I met who I called Aunt Barbara in 1977 when I was 5 years old. She was also funny spunky and so good to me. I remember her giving me snacks, and having sleepovers at her house as I grew older and loved her more I appreciated her sense of humor and quick wit. LOL and told it how she saw it. She will be very missed. Rest in PEACE

Barbara, you were a good friend we always invited each other to dinner and had many parties outside at Minnisink. I moved away and we lost contact. You are in my prayers
