

Beverly Smith

February 15, 1950 - December 17, 2017

Beverly Louise Smith was born on February 15, 1950 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Jacqueline Miller-Smith and William Smith. Beverly proudly attended and graduated from the public schools in Brooklyn, NY. She held employment in customer service capacity for many years in New York and an insurance company and hospital in New Jersey. Beverly left the workforce to care for her mother on a full-time basis until her mother's passing. She rejoined the workforce and worked at Mini Mall Laundromat; there, she gained the friendships and love of and for the patrons.

Beverly surrounded herself with children. Over the years she unofficially adopted many who affectionately addressed her as Mom or Auntie up until the day she passed. Beverly lovingly renamed all her little ones. To name a few, "Too Sweet, Poquito, Bear, Yum-Yum, Muffin", and her latest pride and joy who she did not get to meet in person "Prince".

Beverly did things her way and was not afraid to speak her mind. She played hard and loved others even harder. Beverly was fun to be around and a joy to know. Beverly was a historian on the 60's and 70's soul music, loved listening to Motown music, watching Westerns, true-life events and old movies.

Those to cherish her memory are her son Dante, grandson Cairo, Sisters Ann and Sharon, brother Robert G, nephews Terrell and Xavier, niece Xadea, niece Shelia and husband Chris, cousin Albert, adopted children Tara and Josh, her baby daddy “Smokey” and a host of family and friends.

Tribute Wall

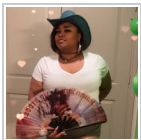

“ Beverly Smith

October 05, 2023 at 11:16 AM

“ Bev was definitely a loving caring lady who definately had alot of adopted kids.. I don't know what to do now when I see Bev Mom on my phone.. we were suppose to meet up and hang out. You left us too soon Bev. May you rest in Paradise. Save me a seat in heaven. I love you Bev!

Melissa Damaso - December 29, 2017 at 05:37 PM

“ I remember when we first moved in downstairs....i came upstairs to meet you Nana Cleo and Caesar....you told me your name was Beverly....but I pronounced it wrong and you said call me Aunt Bev....as I great you,Nana, Cleo' and Caesar became my family...we loved to decorate for different holidays...remember that time we were watching Frankenstein and different black and white scary movies and had to get the bat because we thought someone was trying to get in the house? How about the time i almost vot suspended anf expelled for messing with this boy i liked....you came to the school i had found out then we both had the same last name and noone couldnt tell me you werent my Aunt....even as i grew up of course South Amboy was a bys ride away from Newark but i decided to call until i got my licenses then i started visiting made me miss living under you...you have always been that piece of home that i had remaining in South Amboy....you are part of the reason i am the way i am today and im glad God brought you into my life I love you Beverly Smith until we meet again RIP 💔💔💔

Butta Worthz - December 23, 2017 at 11:16 PM

Tori
Brown

“ Bev, you my girl forever.. I love you and thank you for all the love you have given to me and my family.. Thank you for welcoming us in your family and all the good times we shared together. You were an angel on earth and now your one in the heavens.. We love you now and always

Tori Brown - December 23, 2017 at 07:15 PM

FK

“ She was my everything until i moved to NC..... my heart hurts and imma miss u aunt bev!! When i met you we fell in love with you achother, i had a Aunt a nana that loved me!! I never had that and u and my grandmama gave me that!!! You were my mommas best friend, the only person that could deal with her attitude, i love u and imma miss u!!

falyn n kenalw - December 23, 2017 at 01:49 PM

LO

“ *Hi everyone
My name is Lorine Nestor. I am deeply saddened to learn of my friend's passing.... I met Bev at a telemarketing job and we hit off instantly! Bev took me in after I had a family situation with open arms; never judged me. She loved hard that is true!! But she also never took any crap either! I am back home in the Virgin Islands and I wish I could've been there to say goodbye to my beautiful friend. I will miss you and I love you Beverly...♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥*

lorine - December 23, 2017 at 11:12 AM

 Yvette Ortiz

“ My sister my friend I am saddened to read you have gone home to be with the Lord. I couldn't say I love you, but you know i did. Rip. Praying for all of the family

Yvette Ortiz - December 23, 2017 at 10:28 AM

 Yvette Ortiz

“ Yvette Ortiz lit a candle in memory of Beverly Smith

Yvette Ortiz - December 23, 2017 at 10:24 AM