

Carl Eschner

November 2, 1912 - October 20, 2010

Carl Eschner, 97, formerly of Sayreville and Old Bridge died October 20, 2010. At the time of his death, he was a resident of the Reformed Church Home in Old Bridge. Born in Newark, NJ, Mr. Eschner was a chemical technician for GAF Corporation for over 40 years. After his retirement, he expanded his passion for gardening and sold azaleas and rhododendrons for many years. While a resident of Gillete Manor Seniors Apartment in Sayreville, he grew tomatoes, which he supplied to everyone in the building. He touched the hearts of all who knew him and was predeceased by his beloved wife Marie, sisters Clara Krueger, Regina Martin, and Martha Eschner, and brothers, Jule Eschner, Ludwig Eschner, and William Eschner. He is survived by his daughter Pat McGough and her husband Tom, granddaughters Kathleen Motylenski and Sarita Ponasik, and great grandchildren, Alexandra and Aidan, and many nieces, nephews, and friends, including Larry Samuels. Visiting hours are Friday October 22, 2010 from 2-4 & 7-9pm at the Michael Hegarty Funeral Home, 3377 Rt. 9, Old Bridge, NJ. Funeral Services will be private. In Lieu of Flowers, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.
