“ I feel so privileged to have met and shared time with you Carl, at Kessler. I enjoyed how you bragged about the homes you built and the beautiful life you have with your family especially your wife, Rose. Christmas was to be spent with Children at their new Home this year that was decorated like a wonderland. Your eyes lit up so proud. Lastly, you pointed out your new red car in the parking lot. Carl, my visits won't be the same without you. Carl, please rest in eternal peace. Sweet Dreams, Sweet Man. Rose 🌹 Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. My Condolences to you and your family 🙏😭 Love from, LisaRose Marino-DeQuarto (from Kessler)

“ Dear Carl, when your father introduced us, it was an instant attraction. Little did you know you were entering my chaotic world. The first time you came to my house you were surrounded by my 3 brothers and 2 sisters. A short time later you had the "privilege" of picking my mother up from the hospital to bring home my 4th brother. You survived the next 3+ years and on March 19, 1966, we were married in St. Patrck's Old Cathedral on Mott Street in Little Italy, New York City. Fast forward we were blessed with two amazing, incredible children. Later on, we were proud to welcome an irreplaceable son-in-law and daughter-in-law. To complete the picture, we have 4 grandchildren that you adored and so do I. I wish you could have had more time with us and maybe been part of a wedding or two, but I am sure you will be looking down from Heaven and smiling with pride and love. Rest in peace, your loving wife Rose.
