

Carl Pepia

March 18, 1943 - July 12, 2024

Carl Pepia, 81 of Freehold, New Jersey passed away on Friday, July 12, 2024, at ExcelCare of Manalapan.

Born Thursday, March 18, 1943 in New York, New York, Carl was the son of the late Carlo and Concetta Pepia.

Carl was raised in the West Village neighborhood of Manhattan. Carl would meet and marry the love of his life Lorraine Grayeb, and the couple would live in Brooklyn. Eventually they would settle on Staten Island to raise their family. Carl moved to Freehold later in life to be closer to his children and grandchildren.

Carl worked as a letter carrier for the United States Postal Service. When he wasn't working he enjoyed being outdoors, going camping, going on ski trips and spending time on the vegetable garden. He enjoyed hosting family and friends for barbecues, and listening to Frank Sinatra. Carl liked to play cards, and relax by reading Stephen King books, and completing crossword puzzles. He could often be found rooting for his favorite sports teams the NY Yankees and NY Giants. Carl will be dearly missed by all those that love him.

Carl was predeceased by his beloved wife of 51 years, Lorraine, in 2023, and also by his sister Carol Ricci.

Carl is survived by his loving children, Carlo and his wife Renee, Mark and his wife Maria Elena, and Kenneth, by his caring sister Joan Pepia, and by his cherished grandchildren, Joliana, Dominik, Gavin, Cameron, Ethan, and step-grandchildren Gianna, and Michael.

A Funeral Mass will be at 11:00 AM on Thursday at St. Gabriel's Historic Church located at 549 Rt 520 Marlboro, New Jersey 07746.
