“ *Dear Maria, Marisa, Joseph and your families,
We want to express our deepest condolences in the loss of your dad and husband. Our families grew up together and we all knew what a beautiful person Carlos was. He always made people smile who where around him. He had such a great sense of humor and always made people laugh. Even when he got sick, he knew how to joke about it. This is what made him the person he was. Maria, Marisa and Joseph, he will always be part of your lives when you think about the wonderful memories of him. It is what will keep you going and in time, your hearts will heal and when you think of him you will only be able to smile. Please take care of each other and be strong.*

*Our deepest sympathy,
Maria, Robert, Caroline, Scott, Della and Family*
