

Carolyn T. Powell

December 25, 1934 - January 19, 2018

Carolyn T. Powell passed away on January 19, 2018, she was 83 years old. She had a fondness for cats and a life-long love of reading. Carolyn grew up in Suffolk, Va as an only child of Carrie and Elvington Thompson and went to William & Mary for two years. She moved to East Paterson, NJ in 1955 and began a family of 4 daughters with husband Courtney Powell. In 1959 they moved to Piscataway. They joined the Unitarian Society and were members when the new East Brunswick church was built in 1964. She remained a member for the rest of her life. She divorced in 1974 and obtained a BA from Rutgers. She worked as an administrative assistant into the 1990s for a corporation and a doctor. She is survived by daughters Deborah, Karen, Lorraine and Catherine and grandchildren Ivan, Ben, Anna, Henry and William.

A memorial service is planned for Saturday, February 17, 2018, 1:00 pm followed by reception in the Gathering Room at the Unitarian Society, A Unitarian Universalist Congregation, 176 Tices Lane, East Brunswick, NJ.

Previous Events

Service

FEB 17. 1:00 PM (ET)

The Unitarian Society
176 Tices Lane
East Brunswick, NJ 08816

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn T. Powell

---

October 05, 2023 at 11:16 AM

“ As we plan a gathering of the SHS Class of 1953 I have just learned of the passing of my dear lifelong friend Carolyn. I suspected that this had happened when I stopped receiving emails from "Boris the Brat". Her family and her friends have lost a bright star, filled with creativity and humor. Carolyn could write delightful stories even in elementary school in Suffolk. I will miss her. Shirley Richardson Fitzgerald

---

Shirley Fitzgerald - May 26, 2018 at 09:35 PM