“ So sad to hear of your fathers passing. He was a lovely man. He will be missed by family and friends alike. I enjoyed the photo gallery. It brought up more long forgotten memories of the kids play at your house in Old Bridge. Charles we miss you already.

“ So sad to hear the news today, but so many wonderful memories of a very special time when the Montgomerys and Jacksons made up half our softball team in the 80s. It's been a long time and I can't remember too well if we won many games, but I definitely remember Big Bob's bat in the middle of our lineup and the fun we had playing together. Heaven's lineup just got a boost. God Bless the Montgomery family.

“ I will always remember how he loved to laugh. We shared laughter mostly about Robin, Bob, Jeff, and Lily (his dutiful yet troublemaker dog). He was a great role model for his children and grandchildren. Fond memories of Englishtown will be forever in my heart. Love, peace, and prayers to the Montgomery family.
