“ Chris and I had worked together as lunch supervisors at Sandburg middle school for a decade. We bonded as great friends and met for coffee and bagels at bagel talk almost every month. Chris is always rem for her smile. Laughs. Sarcastic jokes.drinking coffee from a straw. Wearing always her gold chain and cross and gold earrings. She did not like shopping but got her to go once. Her friendship meant the world to me. She always told u the truth and u can always count on her. She loved visiting her daughter Tina in Florida and talked about her son Jason taking him here and there and she left the Xmas decorating to her husband Joe. She was an amazing person I will miss forver but will always have the funny memories we had together and there were many. God bless her family.love u Chris s.
