“ My family wants to send our deepest and most sincere condolences to all of the Shanley family and all of Chris' loved ones. I am so sorry heartbroken and in shock at Chris' passing.

I had the honor of working with Chris for close to 20 years. It was a privilege to have been able to work with such a hardworking accomplished carpenter. Chris was fearless dedicated and a man always ready to help his friends wherever he could. When you see the skyline of Manhattan think of Chris whose blood sweat and tears helped shape it.

I'm gonna miss you Brother all the laughing all the ribbing at work! We had so much fun even when we were both completely soaked freezing cold and covered with mud!

It is my sincere hope the Shanley family can take some solace in the fact that Chris is loved by so many. I'm going miss his unique voice and the good natured insults we would trade back and forth! You left us too soon my Brother and the sadness fills my heart. I know though I am a better man to have had the good fortune to call you my friend. I hope you enjoyed my company as much as I did yours. I will always cherish the time we got to spend together and I will remember you Brother and smile!

Your family has all my family's prayers love and support during this time of bereavement.

Love and miss you my Brother! Until we meet again....

“ My condolences to the Shanley family. I'm so sorry to hear about the loss and in disbelief. I know Chris to have always been a hard worker always committed to his craft and a family man. He loved his nephews and grandparents. He always admired his mom and brothers. He always took care of his mother prior to her passing. He always smiled even when times were difficult for him. Rest easy Chris.

“ I remember teaching you how to do a back handspring on my front lawn... you were so excited you must have done it 50 times that night....

I remember the night we were walking from your apartment to Angela's I had a case of beer on my shoulder, and my high heel got caught in the sewer!!! I 007 rolled and just kept walking case in hand.... You were like “ broooo... you're a ninja!!”

I've been saying it ever since!

You're a good dude bro... a pain in the ass lol but a heart of gold! Know that you were loved 🤔 by many people! You may be gone, but you'll certainly never be forgotten ! You're unforgettable “Stan the Man”💖🙏💖

Until we flip again old friend 💖🙏💖

“ Chris you will be missed my many but never forgotten, your name will mentioned for years to come, remember when Chris did this or said that “stay in school kid” I will hear forever , thank you for all the memories from elementary school all the way up till now, the crazy times and parties we had on Ledge Terrace with Marc, Jimmy and David Reeves and everyone else and their mother because when chris came through it was always a good time , to our late nights shutting down Browntown Bar , I still remember meeting you for the first time on Ledge Terrace I was 12 you were 14, you and Jimmy were walking down the street towards me, you said something I said hello, you than proceeded to lift me above your head like a barbell, turns on you were just showing off how strong you were to Jimmy and then we all walked to Easy Video in deep run shopping center and rented “Iron Eagle” (suggest watching it) Chris loved it , great movie, and the rest was history. Thanks again bro, say hello to everyone for me , I know you all are standing around drinking a few Heineken’s talking about all times, till we meet again 🙏❤️
