“ I am sending this post on behalf of Patrick's many stories he shared with me and our son about his childhood at Karl Drive. Mrs. Schlegel was very dear to his heart. She understood Patrick and took him into her family's home and helped guide him in the right direction during a crossroad in his life. He was always so thankful for Mrs. Schlegel's kindness and understanding. What a unique group of people you all were and still are. To have lived an important time of life in a beautiful suburban area sharing the good times and being there for one another during the challenging times. There was a bond that was made over 50 years ago that could never be broken for the Karl Drive families! What a beautiful blessing.

All our love and sympathy to the Schlegel Family - Love, Joanne and Christopher Roland

“ Deepest condolences to my dear friends Chuck and Lori. Although I couldn't be with you tonight your mom and family are in my thoughts and prayers. Very sad to see another one of our 'moms' pass. Mrs Schlegel was always there and very special in our lives as we grew up. She will live on in our memories. With love, Raymond.

“ Mrs Schegel was one of the Karl Drive Moms that keep us, (OK tried to to keep us), in line during the years of our childhood. I can still hear her yelling at Chuckie! :) Memories are many, and I'll carry them to the end. I'm so glad to have had the opportunity to share the Old Bridge Cruise with all that made those memories. Rest in Peace Claire, I mean Mrs. Schegel. :) MARK

“ We send our deepest condolences for the loss of Claire. She was like a mom to most of the Roland kids during our younger years in Old Bridge, especially Patrick! We have wonderful memories, more recently, from the Caribbean cruise around 16 years ago with many of the Old Bridge crew. We will keep our cherished memories in a special place for Claire always.
With love from the Roland Family
