

Clare P Libonati

January 4, 1940 - January 25, 2012

Clare P. "Teenie" Libonati, 72, of Old Bridge, passed away peacefully at the Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, New Brunswick, surrounded by family. She was a secretary with the Archdiocese of New York, more specifically the secretary to His Eminence John Cardinal O'Connor for many years. She was a communicant of St Anthony RC Church in New York. Born in New York City, she resided there her entire life before moving to Old Bridge 6 months ago. She enjoyed knitting & crocheting. Teenie loved her family especially her grandchildren. She is survived by her children, Sally, Lori, Eileen, & Thomas and also is survived by sisters Betty Ann and Maureen, an uncle Jackie and an aunt Maureen. Friends may call on Friday, from 2-5 & 7-9pm at the Michael Hegarty Funeral Home, 3377 US Hwy 9, Old Bridge. A Funeral Liturgy will be offered on Saturday, January 28 at 9am from St Thomas the Apostle RC Church, 1 St Thomas Plaza, Old Bridge. Committal will be private. In lieu of flowers the family respectfully request considering a donation to Autism Speaks. This can be easily done on the Autism Speaks home page. Thank You.

“ Although I only saw aunt teenie several times a year on holidays and family gatherings, she was always sweet to me and showed genuine interest in what me and my brothers and sister and cousins were up to. She always sent me a card on my birthday- just like my grandmother Betty Anne! Daniel O'Shea
