“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you'r faimly. She was a wonderful, hardworking, person. I will never forget singing with her in the choir and having music class with her. We would always have an amazing time in that class. Not a day would go by that she would'nt have a smile on her face. Cristina was taken out of her life to soon. It shocks me that something this horrible could happen to such a sweet girl for no reason. Cristna will be very missed. She was one of my good friends. Class of 2012.

“ We often say we can't imagine what a person must be going through when they loose a child but I think its more accurate to say that we can imagine, and the image is so heartbreaking we may feel like we have to shut it out, but regardless it is real and the healing process is different for each person. And it is important for those of us who are friends or relatives feeling at a lose for words or paralyzed by inaction to find ways to support that grief and healing. Condolence and my sympathy for your loss to you and your family Eddie, Maria and Christina. Love John Vangeli

“ When I think about Cristina the first thing that comes to mind is Heather & Phil's wedding and how I ended up dancing with Derek, who I had never met before and was way younger than me, so that she could dance with her daddy. We have all experienced a great loss and I just want to send my deepest sympathies and love for your family.

“ To the LoBrutto Family: Although you do not know me, I just wanted to convey my deepest sympathy in the loss of your beautiful daughter/sister, Cristina. Only those that have lost a child can truly know the pain you are feeling. I just wanted you to know that I do understand your grief, and hope, that in some small way, it brings you comfort and peace to know that I share it with you. Surround yourself with family and friends, and let others help you through this most devastating time. I know in my heart, that my daughter, Kelly, welcomed your daughter, Cristina, to Heaven with open arms and will keep her safe. May God Bless you and your family.

“ LoBrutto Family; While I don't believe I ever met any of you, I wish to extend my deepest condolences. Cristina had spent many hours at my house with Erica and I got to know her pretty well when she would be hanging out or sleeping over. We loved talking about music/band, our dogs, and just being silly. I will miss joking around with her and having her over the house, as will my entire family. I will keep your family in my thoughts through this difficult time.
