“ My deepest condolences to Jayne, Jennifer, Mike and Vladys and the rest of Dan's family. As a colleague and friend of Jayne's, I have known Dan for over 20 years. He was so loved and we enjoyed all his many stories of his former life in the Big Apple. My husband and I were honored to know Dan, Jayne's dear friend, and remember fondly a mini-vacation spent together on LBI. It is so sad that covid isolated Dan at the end of his life. May he dance with the angels now.....and I am sure he still has some stories to tell all those who will listen.

“ Dan will forever be loved by his friends and family from his lakeside retirement home, Hopatcong, NJ. Especially his long-time companion of 27 years, Jayne, and Vladys, his grandson from the heart. We will cherish his stories about training to be a medic in the Korean War to protecting the streets of NYC as a police officer. We miss those Sunday football days especially when Dan's NY Giants played against Jayne's Pittsburgh Steelers. We will always remember the stories he shared of his beautiful wife and two sons. Dan was a true family man throughout his life. If you were his friend, you were his family.

Rest In Peace, PopPop
