Christopher, My name is Shane. Your dad and I went to climbing school together many years ago at PS. He was a spectacular human being. You were just a little guy when we were working together as lineman. He adored his family and always talked about you as we traded stories about our children. He loved you so much. I'm so sorry to hear about his passing. I just found out today. My deepest condolences to you and your family.

“ Lost touch with Dave a long time ago. I am so happy to learn that he had such a great family life as I knew him only as a single guy. Great memories of Dave, his dog and his red little pick up truck. Also traveling to the Florida keys, backpacking Yellowstone and skiing with the Ritz North Ski Club at Killington VT. He was all about the outdoors, having the most essential gear. He must have taught his kids some great secrets of nature. See you down the trail, Dave.
