

Delmar D. Reynolds

September 20, 1921 - December 30, 2012

Delmar D. "Dale" Reynolds, 91, of Old Bridge, passed away peacefully on Sunday, December 30, surrounded by family at the Raritan Bay Medical Center, Old Bridge Division. He was an electrical technician for many years, more recently employed by Princeton University, retiring in 1993. He was a US Navy Veteran of WW II, of which he was most proud having been part of the Normandy Invasion. He was a lifetime member of the B.P.O.E. Old Bridge, and of the American Legion. Dale was an avid hunter and fisherman – a true sportsman. Born in Dalhart, TX., he resided in Old Bridge for over 50 years. He is predeceased by his wife of 50 years, the late Pauline Reynolds in 1994 and a daughter Jeanne Reynolds in 2007, and a sister Rhea Mojzis. He is survived by his daughter Patricia Ann Reynolds-Wait & her husband William of Sayreville, a brother Eugene Reynolds of Claiborne, TX and his grandchildren, William Dodds, Patricia Dodds, Jendar Deschenes, Anne Deschenes, William Wait II, and Kaitlyn Wait and his great grandchild Connor Horn-Dodds. Last but not least is his beloved dog Chuck. Friends may call on Thursday, January 3 from 2-4 & 7-9pm at the Michael Hegarty Funeral Home, 3377 US Hwy 9, Old Bridge, NJ 08857. A Funeral Service will be Friday, January 4 at 10am from the Funeral Home. Committal will follow at Old Tennent Cemetery, Tennent, NJ. “ I knew Dale from working with him at Princeton. After he and I retired we would talk on the phone several times a year. He was one of the last 'good guys' in our department. He will be missed, God bless and R.I.P.
