“ Grandpa, you are one of the greatest role models I could ever have asked for in my life. Your hardworking and humble demeanor along with your positivity for all aspects of life taught me that I should always push myself and work towards fulfilling my aspirations. I will never forget climbing up on your chair to do the daily Word Search in the newspaper, watching you polka with mom and Granny, or picking blueberries and vegetables in the garden with you, among many other things. I know that you will continue to watch over and protect us from Heaven. I love you.

“ Grandpa, You are the most hard working and kindest man I have ever known. Thank you for teaching me how to ice skate, how to dance the polka, and how to recite the tongue twister "A skunk sat on a stump, and the stump thought the skunk stunk". Thank you for always coming to my plays, dance recitals, and later, Cora's dance recitals. Thank you for your endless support. I am going to miss you dearly. I am going to miss seeing you shake Cora, Philip, and Adam's hand everytime you saw them. I am going to miss your laugh. I am going to miss your quiet presence. Rest in peace dear Grandpa. Here's hoping Gabriel can blow his horn to the tune of the Beer Barrel Polka.
