Diane Jackman-Orrico, 56 of Manalapan, New Jersey passed away, surrounded by her loving family on Monday, May 14, 2018, at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital in New Brunswick, New Jersey.

Born Wednesday, February 28, 1962 in Brooklyn, New York. Diane was the daughter of the late James and Mary Jane Jackman. She was raised on Staten Island and graduated from Tottenville High School.

Diane was a devoted wife and mother. She and her husband of 24 years, Thomas Orrico lived in Manalapan, New Jersey where they raised their children Julia Marie and Thomas James.

Diane lived for her family and loved hosting big family holidays and parties, especially Thanksgiving.

Diane was a Transportation Secretary for two school districts in the area, first in Manalapan, and then in Freehold.

Diane was a selfless woman who allowed the National Institute of Health (NIH) to study her autoimmune disease in hope that she could be a part of finding a cure.

This is what her family wants her to be remembered for, always thinking and caring about others.

She was a beautiful, kind, and, courageous woman whose smile would light up a room. She touched the lives of many. Diane will be dearly missed by all those that were blessed to have had her in their lives.
