“ Shared some very nice times with Diane who was a very close friend of my friend Nancy Sullivan. She was a delightful person who gave comfort to many people in her nursing career. She had a deep love for animals and the world has lost a kind and thoughtful person. May she rest in peace. Lorraine Larkin

“ This picture is of Diane, Glenna Slattery and Karen Zeigler. They worked as nurses together on Borden-5 at Monmouth Medical Center in the mid-70's and were very friendly and supportive of each other. If anyone knows how to contact Karen I'm sure she would appreciate knowing Diane has passed on.

“ Adding to my sister Isabelle’s comment. Diane was a special friend to our family and especially our mother. She loved classical music and shared a birthday with Beethoven. This is a picture of Diane and her mom with a Pearl Harbor survivor after a visit to the WWII memorial several years ago. Pictured with my family who extended our most sincere condolences.
