“ Diane, you are by far one of the most amazing, interesting, funny, real, caring people I know. You're definitely one of a kind. That's why I'm honored to have you as my best friend. We've been through so much together. You were my family and always called me on my crap and for some odd reason you were the only person I listened to... Thats because I respected you. Dee I miss you so much it hurts. You can never be replaced. I'm not gonna say good bye, I'm gonna say see you later. I love you and will miss you everyday until we meet again. Rest Peacefully.Love,Jessica Edell

“ Diane was not only my sister but my best friend. She always made sure everything was running smoothly and perfect always trying to make sure everyone around her was enjoying themselves. She definitely spoke how she felt did what she wanted. She always tried to help others. First it was massage therapy and her next goal was becoming a nurse. Her nephews especially Paulie - were always taken care of. She would spend as much time as possible with them and buy them bags of toys making them laugh hysterically. She brought so much joy into peoples lives and tried waking everyone's spirits up. She will always be in our thoughts and we are still hoping this is just a big joke and she`ll walk through the door. Everything happens for a reason and maybe this was your calling to help more people. Being a nurse wasn` t enough. God knew you can do more then that. We will always keep you in our thoughts and pray for you each day. I know your watching over us, I know you are our guardian angel. We love you and miss you more and more each day. You have changed into such a beautiful spiritual person. Our stories will never be forgotten and I will never forget your crazy, fun, emotional, loving spirit. I feel you. I love and miss you. Thank you for everyone that has been supporting my family and I- We will remember this and keep you all in our prayers.

“ To my beautiful sister, I have avoided this site and any others with you on it. It's so hard for me to even look at a picture of you without breaking down completely. My life has changed forever, along with so many others. It hurts knowing Paulie is going to miss out on so much without you, you were his favorite person. How can I summarize my whole life into one little space? Not only my sister but my best friend, I love you so much it hurts to think about you now. You always had such an amazing attitude about everything, even as a baby. You had such a huge heart, always so full of life, not wanting to miss out on anything. You made everyday, a day to remember. You always had a goal, but the biggest one out of all was to make every day count, to be happy in life, and although it was short, I know you met that goal. I will never forget how much you loved Paulie and Cristofer, but especially Paulie. I wanted to pick a Godmother that would always be there for my son, and you were more to him than I ever expected. You would have given up anything for him.... and he for you. You will never know how much I appreciated the bond you and him had and I know we will never forget it. I love you more than you will ever know. A piece of me went with you that night, and I don't think I'll ever be whole again. RIP baby girl....Gone for not Forgotten...Your always in my heart...until the day we meet again

“ Where to even begin.....I have finally just started to cope with the fact you really are gone and I hate it. I had only met you earlier this year after I had just moved to NJ but, I loved you dearly. All the times we hung out we shared stories and great laughs with each other. You opened your heart to me and I told you everything. You were the greatest friend anyone had ever asked for. I was so excited to move in and share an apartment with you and create ever more memorable bonding time, however, I don't have that opportunity anymore. I miss you more and more each day and I will always be praying for your family (who was just so so super sweet to me at the funeral home). I can't wait to see you again one day and I know that you and I always had a long-lasting friendship (as I'm sure you did with many people). Rest In Peace and Forever In My Heart

“ I met Diane a few times. She always had a big smile and a great laugh. She was friendly and outgoing. From those few times seeing her, it was obvious she had a lot of love for her friends and family. I hope everyone leans on each other and lifts one another up while carrying her in their heart always. I will keep the few memories I was blessed to make with her in my heart. My prayers are with the entire Mozden family and all of her friends. God bless everybody.

“ My condolence goes out to Diane's family and friends. I graduated with Diane at the Cortiva Institute as a massage therapist. She was a very nice person. She always told me about how much she cared about her grandmother. She always wore a smile no matter what. She will always have a space in my heart. She was very smart with a lot of dreams and very down to earth. She was there for anyone who needed help. She used to play with her hair a lot. I will miss her a lot, too. I did not know anything about it and I was calling her phone, untill my teacher told me the bad news. The news had a negative impact on me.

“ My condolence goes out to Diane's friends and family. I graduated with her at the Cortiva Institute as a massage therapist. Diane was a very nice girl; always told me how much her her grandmother meant to her. She liked to help people and always wore a smile. She was very down-to-earth. I am very happy that I had the opportunity to share a year and three months in the classroom with her. I knew her as a person. There will always be a space in my heart for her. I am very sad when I heard the news. At the time, I did not know anything about it and I was calling her phone, until my teacher told me the bad news. I will miss her smile and the sweet person that she is. I remember she used to play with her hair a lot. She was a good therapist, smart, with a lot of dreams.

“ Dianka, You are not just cousin to me but a sister and best friend. Im not quite sure how I will be able to survive the rest of this journey with out you. You were my partner in crime. Even when your cried you laughed , you could light up a room with that laugh. You saw beauty in things other people just missed, Your patience with Paulie was amazing it didn't matter what else was happening all that mattered was that he was happy and playing. Please watch over him now he needs you.... I already know you are. We could go out with a dollar or a hundred and have the most amazing time. Every moment you were in my life it was better. Your strong point of view on life, love and politics with always stick with me. You made everything you touched feel like gold. You change any room in a room with love. You always wanted to help people ... now as an angel you can help as many you want I guess. I don't think ill ever understand why every plan we had is no longer but maybe its like Paul said you were too good to find your match down here on earth and now you'll find it in heaven . I hope so. I know your laugh with fill heaven up with a light they have yet to see.... but ill miss down here on earth more then you'll ever know. I am so grateful for our last night together. You had the best day and night I could imagine for you. If you wanted me to be a Giant fan would could have found a less extreme way ... But nothing with you was ever simple I guess. I love and miss you more then words can express. Its like a light in my life is gone.... Please be my angel now because life with you watching over me is the only thing that keeps me going... I love you dee
