Eileen was born February 20, 1941 in Brooklyn, New York to Scottish and Irish immigrants, John and Eileen McCartney, both deceased. Eileen was raised in the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn, graduated from St. Joseph High School, and attended Hunter College. Eileen worked for American Fore Insurance Company where she was blessed to meet many lifelong friends. within her community. She enjoyed the many adventures of traveling to Ireland and throughout Europe with her husband, Joe. Among her favorite pastimes were bowling and playing tennis with friends, and attending Book Club at the Plaza Grande. Above all else, Eileen lovingly embraced her role as a devoted mother and doting grandmother to her countless grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a cherished friend and will be deeply missed by all who loved her.

Eileen was tragically predeceased by two of her beloved children, Brenda in 1975 and Joe in 2019, as well as her brother Larry McCartney. She lost her loving husband Joseph Fallon in 2020.

“ I never met someone with such a positive attitude, even in the hardest of times. I met Eileen through Joe and cherish the long friendship and happy memories we share over many years. Joe taught me how to live well and Eileen taught me to be humble and gracious and always be positive. We will miss you dearly.

“ I am very grateful to Eileen and Joe throughout my years in Plaza Grande.
There was a woman who took a great dislike to me and got me ousted from the friends circle I was originally in. Eileen and Joe paid almost no attention and invited me to every party/get together they had. This in someway mitigated this hurt of being left out of the usual outings I use to be part of. I also took them and friends out for Eileens 70
Birthday and again on her 75th BD for a building pizza and cake birthday party. They were an important couple to me. I loved Eileen as everyone else did!

“ Eileen will be greatly missed. She was a wonderful friend. I was her caregiver for over three years. She always said to me “ I could do anything” my response would be “ I do it for you. “ We loved watching movies on Netflix going out to lunch. I enjoyed doing her hair and walking with her and pushing her in her wheelchair around her community then stopping and sitting and chatting with her friends, she will be greatly missed, I will never meet or have anyone in my life like her. She was always so happy and uplifting, no matter what she was going through.. 😊😊 I miss you very much .... But I know now you are in no more pain. Love you

Eileen, just knowing that you're not across the hall anymore will take some getting used to. I'll always remember how kind and helpful you and Joe were to Jeanne when she lived here and how welcoming you were to Chris and I when we moved in after Jeanne passed. We couldn't ask for nicer neighbors. I'll miss you.

*"May the Irish hills caress you.
May her lakes and rivers bless you.
May the luck of the Irish enfold you.
May the blessings of Saint Patrick behold you."*
