“ My very belated condolences.

Eleanor was my mother's first cousin. I don't think I ever met her, but long ago and far away, her mother - my great aunt and Doug's grandmother, Edna Romer Softy - suggested we be pen pals. At least, I think that happened!. To this day I remember the address - 22 Chester St., Valley Stream, NY. It makes me sad that I live so close now, but had not gotten into this part of the family tree before Eleanor died. Marion lived in MN at the same time my parents did - mid 1970s - so I'm guessing the three of them might have gotten together at some point. I hope so.

I would love to get in touch with this part of my family as well.

Best wishes,
