“ I was saddened by the news of Ezzat's passing. I have fond memories of our childhood when we were friends and neighbors back in Heliopolis. In fact, Ezzat's dad, George, was a teacher of mine at St. George's College. Jeannette, all of your Montreal friends are thinking of you and your children at this sad time. Peter Zaloum & Family

“ Ezzat George FaragHe was my God-Father at baptism, took me and Safwat to soccer games, (I remeber Real Madrid Vs.Zamalek til now), he organised a small library and was responsible for it at the Sacred Heart Church in Egypt, he went to war twice, One time 1973 we didn't know where he is for over 6-month, I was a college student at that time, my Grandpa Guedo George asked me to look for him, I was at different military office just about every day (walking) - no records of him at all, could not find his name, until found out where he was and went to welcome him with all the family and friends. He gave a lot of his time to help the poor at St.Vincent and help the church in many ways, Much more memories, but that's enough for now, We pray for him and will always be remembered, in our prayers.I'm writing this from Egypt close to the church he loves.
