

Felicita Moscillo

November 17, 1939 - March 17, 2024

Felicita Moscillo, passed away on March 17, 2024, in Old Bridge, She was born on November 17, 1939, in Sant'Angelo dei Lombardi, Italy, the daughter of Giuseppe and Nicoletta Nero.

Felicita was raised in Italy where she would meet the love of her life, Antonio Moscillo, they would marry on February 10, 1963 and have three children together. In 1973, they made the courageous decision to move to Brooklyn, NY, where they would raise their beautiful family and later settle in New Jersey. Felicita found joy in the simple things in life, she worked at a factory sewing lamps, but her true passion was creating homemade meals for her family, especially her famous pizzas. She had a green thumb for farming and delighted in caring for her plants and flowers. She took great pride in crocheting, in her spare time you would always find her crocheting or cooking. Above all, Felicita cherished being with her family. She spent invaluable time with her loved ones, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Felicita was known for her kind and compassionate nature, her generosity knew no bounds, and her love for her family was immeasurable. Her big heart touched the lives of everyone she encountered. She will be missed by all those who knew and loved her.

Felicita was preceded in death by her parents, Giuseppe and Nicoletta Nero, her beloved husband Antonio Moschillo, her brothers Francesco and Carmine Nero, and her sister Vincenza.

She is survived by her loving children. Gaetano and daughter in law Rosa, Angelina and son in law Salvatore, Josephine and son in law Juan, as well as her adored grandchildren Giovanna and husband Mathieu, Antonietta and husband Kevin, Michael, Salvatore Jr., Nicole and fiance Keiler, Anthony, Diego, Aaron and wife Lynn, and cherished great-grandchildren Isabella, Angelo, Cameron, and Guila. Felicita also leaves behind her faithful companion, her dog Shea.
