“ We are sorry to hear of Fran's passing. We always looked forward to seeing her in church on Sunday and spending time talking with her after Mass. We are sorry that we didn't get to see her in recent years, but we always thought of her and kept her in our prayers. She passed the day before my Mom. Now they are together watching over all of us. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. ~ Joann (D'Onofrio) & Christopher Baroni

“ Joe and I would like to extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Michael, Clare, Val, Anastasia and Deana.

We will always remember Fran as a strong, faith-filled lady who never let hardship get her down. She always maintained a positive attitude which brought comfort to those around her. We remember her warm, welcoming, and most of all humorous disposition which made our visits happy and memorable ones.

Although we will miss her genuine smile and laughter, we are comforted to know she is in her heavenly home with all her loved ones, especially Alfred and will be having a very Merry Christmas up in heaven. May she rest in heavenly peace!

“ A mother's love - hard to put into words.

Loving, listening, encouraging, laughing, understanding, compassionate, supportive....

Mom encouraged my brother and me to try to do our best in whatever life sent our way. It is what she demonstrated throughout her life. I recall times when we were 1/4 mile deep in the woods that through the pause of the stroke of a saw or a swing of an ax you could hear Mom call –AAALLLFFFRREEEDDDD. You knew it was time to eat. Whether it was driving me to check my traps in the dead of winter, dead foxes hanging off a tree, ducks hatching in the yard, she always had a big smile on her face knowing that I was happy. She always gave to people in need from what she had, be it time or material items.

Mom's door was always open and all were welcome for holiday gatherings, or just a dish of macaroni, or a good home cooked meal. A strong woman by circumstance, she took it on with grace and confidence. She even arranged her own funeral right down to obituary, clothing, readings, songs, and casket.

In her later years, the welcoming of her grandchildren with a glow of happiness, passing down the family stories, wisdom, and of course, to do your best in all you do.

Mom is resting in piece, with a life well lived, sharing the Christmas feast with Al, (she tried for Thanksgiving).

My family and I thank you all for your prayers, friendship to Mom, spending time with her as the Lord was making her space in Heaven!

God Bless!

“ Mrs. Guglielmo,
One of the best neighborhood moms in Lakeridge West. Always a smile with such a loving demeanor. There to support Mike and Al with their passions and making the boy's friends feel like part of the family.

As the years drift by and many things we had in are childhood changed, one thing held fast. Mrs. Guglielmo, still ebullient with her family, friends and Gods grace. Godspeed Mrs. Guglielmo, tell Al I said "hello".
