“ Anthony, I'm very sorry for your loss. Just know you are not alone, and you have some many people there for you. This poem helped me when my mom passed last year. I share it with you in hope you find comfort in such a difficult time. A letter from your Dad. When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess How much you gave to me in happiness. I thank you for the love you have shown But now it's time I travel on alone. So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a little while that we must part, So bless the memories within your heart. I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart you'll hear All of my love around you soft and dear. And then, when you must come this way alone I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home." Scott & Maureen Russo

“ When I think of Calhoun, I remember him with a big smile. He put up with our little game of going to "dad" when he was working, for extra cash to go down the shore. We knew he'd never say no to us. I think of the funny remarks he'd make as we were heading out the door to go dancing. I was blessed to know him. A true Jersey Character and loved by all for it. May you rest in peace and may God give comfort to your family.
