

Frank Savino

July 5, 1932 - November 27, 2020

Frank Savino, 88 of Manalapan, New Jersey passed away on Friday, November 27, 2020, at the home of his daughter, surrounded by the love of his family..

Born Tuesday, July 5, 1932 in Manhattan, NY, Frank was the son of the late Ralph and Rose Savino.

Frank was raised in the Little Italy section of Manhattan. After graduating from High School Frank would meet the love of his life Lucille Brescia. The couple would marry and move to the Bensonhurst section of Brooklyn. That is where they would raise their daughter. Frank worked for the Department of highways as a highway repairman, before retiring. In 2003 Frank and Lucille would move to Covered Bridge in Manalapan, to be closer to family. Frank enjoyed baseball and was a big fan of the New York Yankees.

Frank was predeceased by his beloved wife of more than 60 years, Lucille, who passed away in July.

Frank is survived by his loving daughter Dawn Rotondo and her husband Danny, and by his niece Mary Ditto, and by his nephews, Ralph Ditto and his wife Robin, and Andre Ditto.

Entombment will be in Marlboro Memorial Cemetery, Morganville, NJ.

The family is planning a memorial gathering to take place in the Spring of 2021.

Online condolences may be made to the family at www.HegartyScaliaFuneralHome.com

Cemetery Details

Marlboro Memorial Cemetery

361 HWY 79
Morganville, NJ 07751

Tribute Wall

“ Frank Savino

October 05, 2023 at 11:16 AM