

Fred Jardinella

June 27, 1924 - February 22, 2017

Fred Jardinella, 92 of Toms River, New Jersey died on Wednesday, February 22, 2017, at Community Memorial Hospital of Toms River.

Born Friday, June 27, 1924 in New York, New York, Fred was the son of the late William and Jenny Jardinella

A member of the greatest generation, Fred was a proud veteran of the United State Navy, he served his country admirably during WWII. Fred lived in Brooklyn with his wife Victoria before they moved to Toms River 31 years ago. Fred worked as an inspector with ConEd in Brooklyn, working out of Atlantic Avenue. He spent 38 years with ConEd before retiring. Fred enjoyed singing, he started an Acapella Choir group. Fred also enjoyed dancing and he and Victoria started the Pairs and Squares square dancing club at the Holiday City Club. They would travel together dancing at different venues. Fred enjoyed the many trips to Atlantic City and Florida. Most of all Fred enjoyed spending time with his family. In 2010 the love of his life, his wife of 64 years, Victoria passed away. Fred and Victoria are together again, and are missed by all who knew and loved them.

Fred is survived by his loving sons, William and his wife Joan, Robert and his wife Gloria, and James and his girlfriend Joanne, by his cherished grandchildren, James, Michael, and Kira, and by his adoring great grandchildren, Elizabeth, James William, Hannah, and Charley.
