

Gerald Mula

October 29, 1929 - October 20, 2022

Gerald Mula, 92 of Jackson, New Jersey passed away on Thursday, October 20, 2022, at Centra State Medical Center in Freehold.

Born on Black Friday, 1929, in Brooklyn, New York, Gerald was one of five children born to the late Antonio and Maria Mula.

One of Gerald's earliest memories was going to work at the age of 5 selling apples to make money for his family. That value of serving others would carry on into his entire life. In July of 1947 Gerald would join the United States Army, and serve his country honorably in Korea. Upon returning home Gerald would start a lifelong career with the US Customs Service.

In 1952 Gerald would marry Kathleen, and the couple would live in the Bath Beach section of Brooklyn, before settling in the Dongan Hills section of Staten Island to raise their family. Gerald would retire in 1987 and move to Mansfield Township, NJ, before moving to Jackson in 2004 to be near his daughter.

Throughout the years Gerald enjoyed his weekly trips to Atlantic City, rooting for his favorite baseball team, the NY Yankees, dining out at local restaurants, and going to the boardwalks with his grandson James.

Gerald was predeceased by his wife Kathleen, and by his daughter in law Caroline.

Gerald is survived by his loving children, Joyce Gheraldi and her husband Joseph, and Richard Mula, by his cherished grandchildren, Chelsea Kokernak, Ellie Mula, and James Gheraldi, and by his cherished great grandchildren, Dante Jacoby, Aiden Jacoby, and Lexie Kokernak.

A Funeral service will be at 10:30 AM on Monday at Saint Ambrose located at 83 Throckmorton Ln Old Bridge, New Jersey 08857. Interment will be in Resurrection Cemetery, Staten Island, NY.

Thank you for your kind words, William. They really mean a lot to me. My dad often spoke of his Customs family.
