

Hanalie Waranch Treiber

October 15, 1941 - September 26, 2024

Hanalie Waranch Treiber, 82 of Tinton Falls passed away on Thursday, September 26, 2024 in Long Branch, New Jersey.

Born Wednesday, October 15, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland, Hanalie was the daughter of the late Calvert and Esther Waranch. When Hanalie was a young girl, her family relocated to New Jersey, settling in Maplewood. Hanalie was a graduate of Columbia High school and would then go on to attend Mount Holyoke College in Massachusetts. Hanalie then moved back to New Jersey, married, and went on to raise 3 children. She continued her education graduating from Rutgers University with a bachelors in Psychology and later a masters in Social Work.

Hanalie worked as a social worker helping children, and later made the decision to go back to school enrolling in Cardozo School of Law, earning her Juris Doctorate in 1987.

Prior to law school Hanalie chose to get her private pilot's license, flying out of Flanders Valley airport. She wrote articles for Flying Magazine to pay for her flight time.

Hanalie later married Elliot Treiber and the couple moved to Marco Island, Florida. Hanalie had a love for animals often doing pro bono work as an attorney for animal rescue organizations. Hanalie was an excellent pianist, enjoyed listening to and playing all kinds of music and later in life played the viola and violin for community symphony orchestras. Hanalie loved collecting things, with her favorite being Little Lulu dolls.

Hanalie was predeceased by her parents and her husband Elliot Treiber. She is survived by her children, Ruth Stein, and partner Michael, Max Stein, and Emily Rachel Epstein and husband Mitchell, her sister, Karlyn Messinger, her grandchildren, Callie, Stein-Wayne, Joey Epstein, and Cydney Epstein, and by her great grandson, Ezra Daily.

“ I spent a few weeks in the summer with Hanelie and her kids (my cousins) when I was young. What fun we had. Hanelie helped us make multicolored jello desserts! She was not only a favorite cousin, but a free spirit. Love you always - Cousin Leah

And the funny thing is I'm her cousin Max. I was born the same day as cousin Leah! December 28th 1964. I'm 2 hours older than cousin Leah.
