“ To our dear friends, the Kulkas and the Schottles, We have warm memories of such happy times together when the children were growing up. For so many years we enjoyed family gatherings in glen rock, in Vermont and in old bridge., especially at Lynn and marks wedding, etc. We are all heartbroken at the tragic news of her passing. She was such a special person. We send our love to all. Ron, please call me and leave your number. Love, ann and mike McLaughlin and family

“ In The Loss of Hermine Kulka'Soul Secrets for the Death of Someone You Love'O Lord, I have lived this day to bury the one I love. My gratitude is as full as my grief, and my peace is as deep as my pain-all because of You. I need You as never before. Shepherd my soul through these dry and heavy days. You send us to earth for a season, and then You receive us again unto Yourself. I understand this cycle, but I wasn't quite ready to let go of this love one as I thought I'd be. For a while I've known that someday this would happen, but the finality and reality of it are piercing. One thing I do know is that death cannot kill love and human hands cannot bury it. On this, my loved one's resurrection day, I give You praise for a life lived well. Prayerfully, May the Peace of the Lord Be with You Always!!! Love and Sympathy, Yvonne Jackson DAV29
