“ Although I know in my heart that Ida is now at peace with the Lord and her beloved Salvatore, my heart is broken because I will miss her terribly. Ida was not just my best friend's mother, she was my friend and my family for 42 years. Every time I was in her company, she held my hand and shared her faith, dreams, frustrations, fears and love with me (in Spanish no less). Ida was such a strong, faith driven woman who made all who came in contact with her feel special. She will always hold a special place in my heart, memories and prayers. Until we meet again my dear friend... Diana Cartagena

“ To My Dear Friend Maria, Ida's daughter, and Ida's whole family. Although I didn't know your mother for very long, every time I saw her at Anthony's karate sessions, a baseball game, Anthony's confirmation or at Joe and Maria's home, her kindness knew no boundaries. Her passionate and deep faith were a large part of her beauty as was her love of her family. She embraced my family as her own and always treated me as a daughter. I will miss how she would hold my hands as she told a story or shared what was in her heart. My condolences are with all of you but I know that Ida is in a better, more peaceful place. May her spirit live in all your hearts and may your memories help you during the difficult days ahead. Miriam Slome & Family

“ After being a part of the Buttiglione family for 30 years there are numerous memories that can be shared. My greatest memory with Ida was our trip to Italy for Francesca's wedding. The laughs and good times we had will always be cherished. The great dinners at the My Way in Jersey City were always special times we spent together. I will miss her visiting me at my office and showing up with enough of food to feed the entire staff. You never knew when she was going to surprise you with her generosity. She was like a second Mom to me and was always there for me in good and bad times. I will take all of her "God Bless You's" and keep them close to my heart forever and ever. I will miss you and love you forever till we meet again.

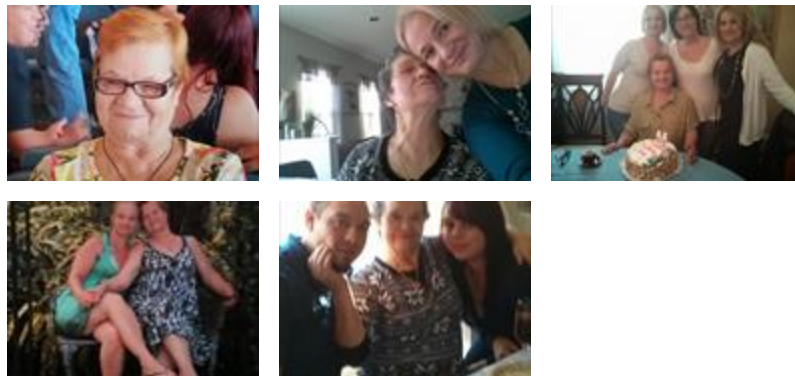

I love you,

Dawn

*My Mom' s faith was unwavering, my memory today is of the endless debates, that of course she would start with Rodel; and it usually started with "Son I know you don't believe but" and I'd go here we go, and we spent endless hours debating at the kitchen table and she would usually end by saying the Love of God touches us all in one way or another, my mother was sharing the love of God with Del, we often forget that we have the greatest power within us to spread the word of God simply thru words, they don't have to complicated or intricate words; just simple spoken conversation.
It is one of the many beautiful qualities my mother has left us withSimplicity ..*

*Beautiful the light that shine forth from your beautiful smile for the grandest of all Fathers is now shining upon you.
Ma the bravest of battles you have fought with the greatest of courage, the endless rosaries you have prayed; have saved many souls , and earned their entrance into paradise.
The Words of Wisdom beyond any spoken words we can communicate you have spoken, gracefully to us time and again, See Ma I was watching, with awe , when you where winning those battles one by one , See Ma I was listening when you spoke your words of wisdom that now are etched in my heart forever.
more than anything Ma I will carry the greatest lesson you have taught me, your unwavering faith, that you proudly expressed with a joy incomprehensible to many. These words you spoke, Everything shall come to pass but the Love of God always remains are the words that now sustains me.
But see Ma , the Love of a mother doesn't pass either I know
That your love also remains forever with me Ma . I love you...
Tutto passa Ma l'amore di Dio non passa mai.
Rest now Ma in your Heavenly Peace.....*
