

Ilene Gennaro

December 4, 1922 - July 3, 2013

Ilene Gennaro passed away on July 3, 2013. Born in Valentines, Virginia in 1922, Ilene was the fifth of six children born to Aaron and Fannie Moody. Ilene spent her childhood on the family farm, retelling stories in later years of tending to livestock and crops. She made her way to New York City while still a teenager, becoming a "working girl" long before it was fashionable. But her proudest achievement was the birth of her only child, Patricia ("Pat"). Although Pat predeceased her in 2011, their bond was a special one filled with fun family gatherings, traveling, recipe sharing, and everything in between. Ilene will be missed by all who knew her, but most by her son-in-law, Patrick Dougherty; her three grandchildren and their spouses: Pam Hadley (Randy), Jimmy Dougherty (Sharon) and Keith Dougherty (Lisa); six great-grandchildren: Connor, Shane, Patrick, Madison, Megan and Ryan; several nieces and nephews; and friends from Sunrise Assisting Living and The Roosevelt Care Center in Old Bridge.
