“ Our Godmother Lumen(The Pararells and Influences in our Life)Ninang Lumen came into my life when my Brother Jeff and Jay were classmates in 4th grade at St Nicholas School in Jersey City. My Parents and Ninang and Ninong became very close, celebrating important milestones together. Ninang and my Mom worked together as Nursing Supervisors in Christ Hospital in Jersey City and in St. Peter's University Hospital in New Brunswick. I realized that Ninang was an influential role model. She received her Master's degree in Nursing Management from NYU and I received my Bachelor's degree in Food, Hotel and Restaurant Management from NYU too.During our wedding, Nelia and I chose her to be one of our Godmothers. My family became very close to Ninang and Ninong. Many times, while Ninong and I would help each other fix or do things around our houses, Ninang and Nelia would go shopping for clothes, food and other women type things. Ninang enjoyed vacationing. We traveled together to New Orleans, Biloxi, Mississippi, Pensacola, Florida and Cancun, Mexico. Recently, she wanted to go to the Dominican Republic; however, we were not able to go because of her condition. Ninang and Ninong were always present celebrating my family milestones.Ninang was a very caring, compassionate and helpful person. She was an excellent cook. One time I said that I missed my Mom's pecan tarts, and days later, she made them for us. I know that she will continue to bless all of us with all of these special and wonderful traits. Now, she certainly is in a peaceful spot in Heaven looking for a jewelry store like Roger's, a Chinatown so that she can eat Siopao and Salt and Pepper Pork Chops again, and places to visit like New Orleans, Biloxi and Cancun so that she relax and go shopping for clothes, jewelry and shoes; of which, she loved to wear.Ninang, we are all sad that you left us, but relieved that you are not in pain and suffering any longer. We will certainly miss you. May you rest in peace. Amen!

“ Letter for Grand MaGrandma, As our time together gets shorter I wanted to make sure that I let you know how much you mean to me. You are such a strong woman, and you have been an amazing role model for me. I have valued all the time we spent together - you taught me how to be a strong, independent and loving woman. I owe you so much for helping raise me and molding me into the person I am today. I hope that you are proud of the woman that I have become. I promise that I will grow to be someone that you can continue to be proud of as you watch me from up in heaven. I will not give up on my dreams to become a doctor, and hope to dedicate my life to helping other like you did. Don't be afraid to rest now. You have fought and long and hard battle, with such grace and strong faith in God. I know you don't want to leave us here, and it will be hard to go on without you, but we will be okay. You taught us all how to love unconditionally and to put others first. Dad, Aunt Marilu and I will take care of Grandpa until it its time for you to be together again. And I hope I can find a love like you and grandpa have one day. I wish I could be there to be with you, but know that you are in my thoughts every day. Don't take this as a goodbye, because I know we will see each other again some day. I love you so much.

“ It has been an honor knowing Ate Lu throughout her 8 year ordeal with myeloma. She's a fighter and never lost hope despite of all the struggles she went thru week to week. Instead of worrying about herself, she worries for everyone else instead. She is like a mother/grandma to everyone. I will forever take her memories with me - as a nurse and as a friend. To the Salanga family, my deepest condolences for your loss. She will surely be missed. Arlynn

“ Our deepest sympathy to Tito Arturo, my cousins JJ and Marilu, for the loss of Tita Lumen. She was a strong and caring woman, who fought a good fight, but God was ready for her to come home. She will continue to watch over you and guide you from above. Love and prayers, Mary Ann (Salanga), Tim and Alicia Beranek

“ Iluminada, the name means illuminated. My mom was a shining light to all she came in contact with. To me, Iluminada means mother. To my Dad, Iluminada means wife, best friend, soulmate.. To all she came in contact Iluminada means friend, advisor, mentor, sister, grandmother and so much more. My mom is loved by so many. She was a caring person. As I was helping take care of my mom these last few weeks, every time she would wake her up from sleeping she would ask me "did you eat yet?" Even during her declining health she was always looking out for her family. My mom was a planner as well. When I got home 3 weeks ago, my mom sat me, my dad, and sister down and went through the list of things to be done as her time here on earth would end soon. Funeral arrangements, songs to play at mass, and other arrangements that she did not want her family to worry about in her absence. Iluminada means so much more than enlightened and she is shining down on all of us now. I love you mom and I will miss you.
