“ This photo was taken somewhere near or on West 57th Street where Irene’s family lived when she was growing up. These are neighborhood kids. My mom, Irene’s older sister Florence is standing on the right of the man and Irene is the third girl from the left in the bottom row. Love to see pictures of my mom and aunt as children!

“ Like Mary Anne I have to say that Aunt Irene was truly one of the remarkable and important people in my life. Her joy, love, unselfishness was special. I can truly say she has inspired me to be a more loving and giving person. All we can do is take a piece of her soul and share the love with all the people we meet. What a great, great lady!!!!

“ Aunt Irene was loving, patient, kind, generous, selfless. I will miss her but hold in my heart memories of spending a week many summers with her, Uncle Moe and my cousins. She treated me as one of her own children and I wished the week would never end. More recently she never hesitated to open her home to my husband when we were moving to NJ but had not sold our home in NH yet and Bill needed a place to live temporarily so he could start a new job. Her response when I called to ask, “of course it’s what family does” . I was blessed to have you on my life.
