

James Heinz

June 22, 1948 - November 22, 2021

James Heinz, 73 passed away on Monday, November 22, 2021, in Freehold, New Jersey.

Born Sunday, June 22, 1948, in Jersey City, NJ, he was the son of the late Frederick and Theresa Heinz.

James would move to Rahway with his family, and would attend Rahway High School. He would then join the United States Army, stationed in France. James would meet and marry his wife Patricia. They would continue to live in Rahway, and that is where they raised their children. They would eventually retire to Hawley, Pennsylvania. It was recently that James moved back to Manalapan to be closer to his family.

James worked at the Ford Motor Company in Edison. He was a member of the United Auto Workers. In his spare time James enjoyed fishing, playing poker, going bowling, or throwing darts with friends. He will be missed by all those that loved him.

James was predeceased by his wife, Patricia, who passed away in 2009.

James is survived by his loving children, Lee Ann Harmon-Colleton and her husband Edward, James John Heinz Jr., and his wife Christine, and Kenneth Heinz and his wife Wendy, by his cherished grandchildren, Michael Harmon, Caitlin Harmon, Leo Colleton, Katrina Heinz, Kelly Heinz, Anthony Heinz, and Michael Heinz, and by his siblings, Frederick Heinz and Brenda Heinz.

In lieu of flowers please consider making a donation to the American Cancer Society in memory of James.
