“ I have such fond memories of James and am deeply saddened by his passing. My condolences to his family and loved ones. I will miss trading quips with James at our every meeting and departure at the courthouse. More than that I will miss his energy, zest for life, openness, candor, and friendship. James was a kind and generous soul who gave all he met his most precious possession, part of himself. May he rest in peace.

“ Generous of spirit, kind and caring. A giver who did not know how to take, but who was so deserving of receiving. A rainbow man with a child’s curiosity and appreciation of life’s adventures, great and small. You left us longing for more time with you. Your heart may have been broken, but your spirit is invincible. We love you.

“ Still shocked and saddened about Jame’s passing. Although I haven’t seen James since I moved to Florida, I’ll always remember him as a fine and gentle spirit who lifted those around him with his smile, his humor and most of all with his grace. He was also a dear friend of my late former wife Nancy who always managed to lift her spirits as well during her illness and final days. May the thoughts and prayers of others, lift up the family and bring some measure of comfort in the days, weeks and months yet to come. We were all blessed having James as part of our lives, however brief.
